Master's of Business Administration,
Sports Business

The Sports MBA program at San Diego State University offers an accelerated, accredited MBA curriculum focused entirely on the sports industry. Our location in Southern California provides faculty with real world industry examples for use in the classroom and offers students internship and job opportunities with hundreds of sports organizations.

The program prepares students for the ever-changing sports business marketplace. SDSU also takes students on an international study abroad experience in the Dominican Republic to study baseball's impact on the country.

For more information, contact us at smbainfo@sdsu.edu, 619-594-6023
or @SDSU sportsMBA.

The Preston Robert Tisch Institute for Global Sport, located in the sports capital of the world – NYC – is a global leader in sports business education. Our focus is the influences that are disrupting the sports industry – sports tech and innovation, globalization, and the next generation of fan engagement. Industry-driven curriculum offers immersive experiential learning, invaluable professional connections, and an outstanding record of job placement. The Tisch Institute is deeply committed to the transformative power of sport, and provides platforms for students to create social change. We offer two graduate programs of study—the NEW MS in Global Sport, and the globally-ranked MS in Sports Business. The MS in Global Sport combines online coursework with four 1-week global residencies, allowing busy working professionals from around the world to form a distinct cohort of future global sports leaders. The MS in Sports Business draws upon our NYC location and features courses like the Business of eSports and numerous sports analytics courses. It can be completed part-time or full-time. A BS in Sports Management also is available that provides a strong foundation for work in the sports industry or for pursuing a graduate degree.

DEGREES OFFERED

Bachelor's – Recreation, Event and Sport Management

Master's – Recreation, Event and Sport Management

In full partnership with the Dallas Cowboys, the University of North Texas (UNT) offers a 36-credit hour MBA program in Sport and Entertainment Management (SEM), with a strong emphasis on professional sport entertainment. Throughout the study, students will be exposed to some of the best practices in sport business through guest lectures, case studies and class assignments, developed by the most valuable sport franchise in the world. Classes are offered in Frisco, Texas, within walking distance from the Star, the world headquarters of the Dallas Cowboys, and in the midst of a multitude of other professional sport entities. Aside from the Cowboys partnership, the MBA SEM program has partnered with the PGA of America, who is moving their headquarters to Frisco. Under the supervision of world class faculty, UNT students will also work closely with many of the professional sport entertainment organizations in the Dallas - Fort Worth area, such as FC Dallas, the Dallas Mavericks, the Texas Rangers, the Dallas Stars, Learfield IMG College, Topgolf, and many of the minor league teams in the area.
